Transforming Worship South

Having confidence in liturgy as mission

An opportunity to explore how mission is an integral and implicit part of the nature of liturgy. Do we recognise and act on this potential? Come and both be challenged by theory and practice in our keynote inputs and share experiences in the breakout groups.

Speaker

The Reverend Dr Ian Paul

Ian is a theologian, author, speaker, academic consultant. Adjunct Professor, Fuller Theological Seminary; Associate Minister, St Nic's, Nottingham; Managing Editor, Grove Books; member of General Synod.

Welcome to Transforming Worship

From the beginning of September, Praxis will be re-branded Transforming Worship, and similarly, Praxis South becomes Transforming Worship South. The process of change will not all happen at once, but over a period of months, and so some remains of Praxis, such as websites, will still be in use. We hope that you will not be too confused. Our aims will remain the same, as in the paragraph below.

Transforming Worship offers the following:

- † training days and events around the country (with reduced fees for members and no charge for ordinands or Readers-in-training)
- † key speakers and ideas for diocesan CME/CMD programmes, and resources for training colleges/courses/schemes
- † our quarterly newsletter Transforming Worship News, included in the membership fee
- † and, of course, our website.
